
PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT POLICY

California Pacific Charter Schools (“CPCS” or the “Charter School”) has developed a written Parent and Family Engagement Policy (“Policy”) with input from Title I parents and families. CPCS has distributed the Policy to parents of Title I students by posting it on the school website and including it in the Parent and Student Handbook. This Policy describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parent and family engagement requirements.

CPCS Expectations and Objectives

In establishing the Charter School’s expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family involvement, CPCS has established the following practices:

1. CPCS involves parents and family members in the joint development of the Charter School’s Parent and Family Engagement Plan.
 - a. Community meetings
 - b. Schoolsite Council
 - c. Stakeholder surveys
2. CPCS provides the coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist and build the capacity within the Charter School in planning and implementing effective parent and family involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance, which may include meaningful consultation with employers, business leaders, and philanthropic organizations, or individuals with expertise in effectively engaging parents and family members in education.
 - a. Parent trainings and webinars
 - b. School-Parent/Guardian Compact
 - c. Local Control Accountability Plan
3. CPCS coordinates and integrates parent and family engagement strategies to the extent feasible and appropriate, with other relevant federal, state, and local laws and programs.
 - a. ELAC
 - b. Title 1, Part A
 - c. Local Control Accountability Plan
4. CPCS conducts, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the Policy in improving the academic quality at the Charter School.
 - a. Stakeholder surveys
 - b. Local Control Accountability Plan engagement
 - c. Revisiting the parent and family engagement policy annually

PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT POLICY

5. CPCS conducts, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, an annual evaluation of barriers to greater participation by parents/families (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background).
 - a. ELAC
 - b. Local Control Accountability Plan engagement
 - c. Schoolsite Council
 - d. Stakeholder Surveys

6. CPCS conducts, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, an annual evaluation of the needs of parents and family members to assist with the learning of their children, including engaging with Charter School personnel and teachers.
 - a. Parent trainings and webinars
 - b. Stakeholder surveys
 - c. ELAC
 - d. Schoolsite Council
 - e. Local Control Accountability Plan engagement

7. CPCS conducts, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, an annual evaluation of strategies to support successful Charter School and family interactions.
 - a. Stakeholder surveys
 - b. ELAC
 - c. Schoolsite Council
 - d. Local Control Accountability Plan engagement

8. CPCS uses the findings of the annual evaluation to design evidence-based strategies for more effective parental and family engagement, and to revise, if necessary, the Parent and Family Engagement Policy.
 - a. Leadership team evaluates the data received from the following items and makes the needed adjustments to increase effective parental and family engagement:
 - i. Stakeholder surveys
 - ii. ELAC
 - iii. Schoolsite Council

PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT POLICY

- iv. Local Control Accountability Plan engagement
9. CPCS involves parents in the activities of the Charter School to adequately represent the needs of the population.
- a. Schoolsite Council
 - b. ELAC

Involvement of Parents in the Title I Program

To involve parents in the Title I program at CPCS, the following practices have been established:

1. CPCS convenes an annual meeting to inform parents of Title I students about Title I requirements and about the right of parents to be involved in the Title I program.
 - a. Meeting will be held virtually with email invitations being sent out to all parents of Title 1 eligible students.
2. CPCS offers a flexible number of meetings for Title I parents, such as meetings in the morning or evening.
 - a. The school will offer a one time virtual meeting, along with a recorded version and an opportunity to submit questions and provide feedback.
3. CPCS involves parents of Title I students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of the Charter School's Title I programs and the Parent and Family Engagement Policy.
 - a. This is completed through the following:
 - i. Stakeholder surveys
 - ii. Schoolsite Council
 - iii. Local Control Accountability Plan engagement
 - iv. Parent trainings and webinars
4. CPCS provides parents of Title I students with timely information about Title I programs.
 - a. Parent/Student Handbook
 - b. Direct communication via email to parents of Title 1 students
5. CPCS provides parents of Title I students with an explanation of the curriculum used at the Charter School, the assessments used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.

- a. Parent/Student Handbook
 - b. California Pacific Charter School website
 - c. Parent trainings and webinars
 - d. Direct communication via email to parents of Title I students
 - e. Individual conferences between parents and staff
6. If requested by parents of Title I students, CPCS provides opportunities for regular meetings that allow the parents to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children
- a. Meeting will be held virtually with email invitations being sent out to all parents of Title I eligible students.
 - b. Local Control Accountability Program stakeholder information meeting
 - c. Schoolsite Council

The Policy must be updated periodically to meet changing needs of parents and the Charter School. If CPCS has a process in place for involving parents in planning and designing the Charter School's programs, the school may use that process if it includes adequate representation of parents of Title I children.

School-Parent Compact

CPCS distributes to parents of Title I students a School-Parent Compact (the "Compact"). The Compact, which has been jointly developed with parents, outlines how parents, the entire Charter School staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement. It describes specific ways the Charter School and families will partner to help children achieve the State's high academic standards. It addresses the following legally required items, as well as other items suggested by parents of Title I students.

1. CPCS's responsibility is to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction to meet the challenging State academic standards.
2. The ways parents will be responsible for supporting their children's learning by participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children and positive use of extracurricular time.
3. The importance of ongoing communication between parents and teachers through, at a minimum, monthly learning period meetings; frequent reports on student progress; access to staff; opportunities for parents to volunteer and participate in their child's education; and regular communication between family members and school staff,
